

Lutheran High North

CLASS OF 1993 - 30TH REUNION

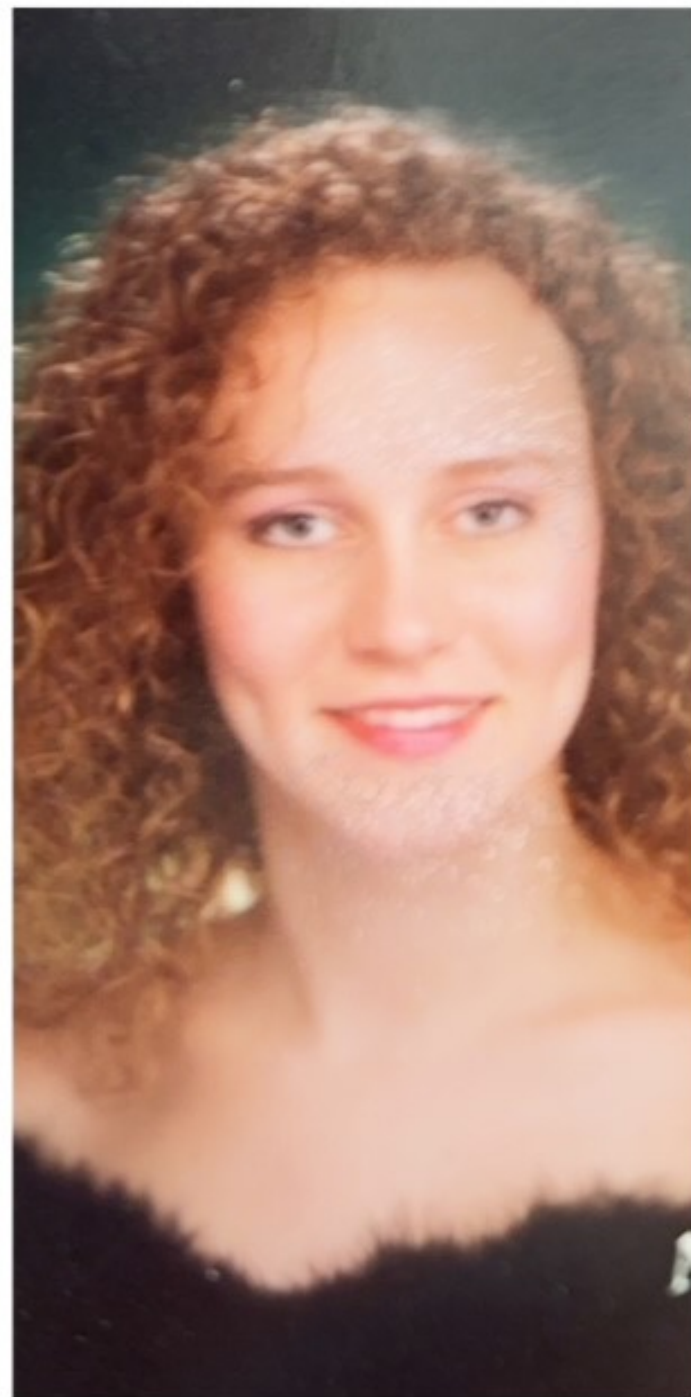

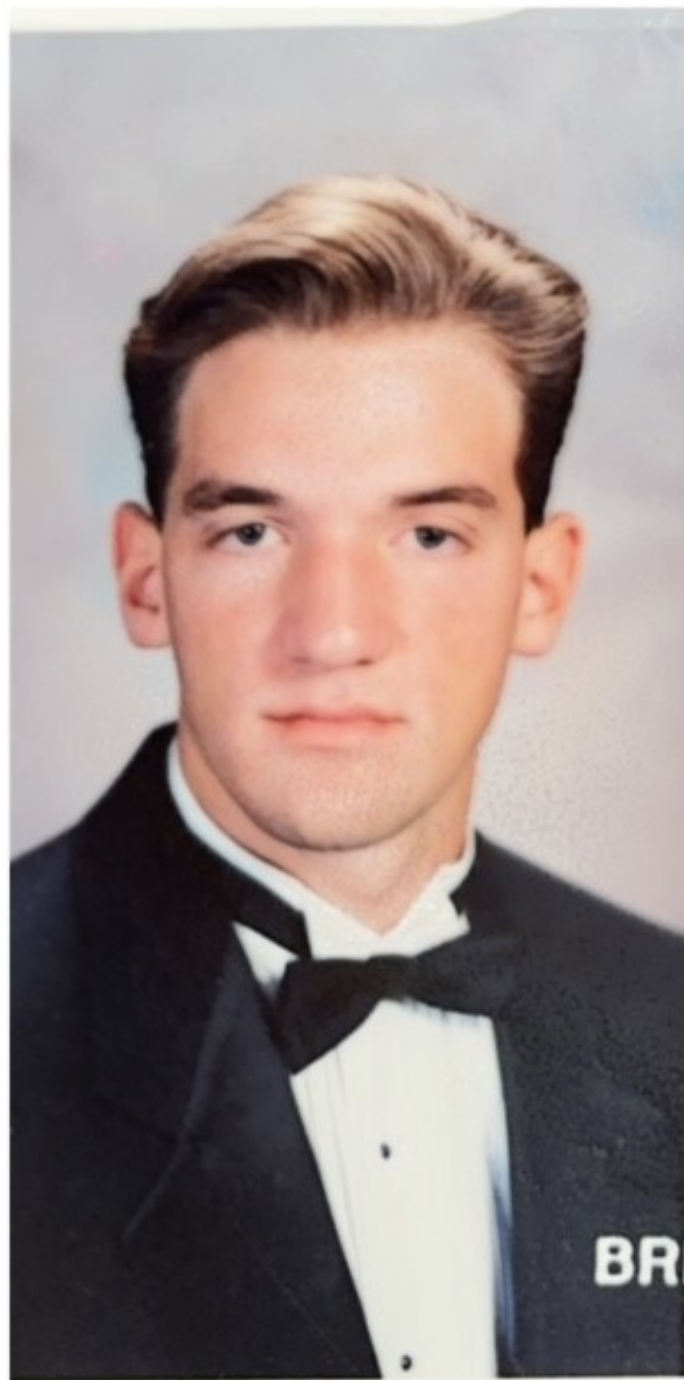

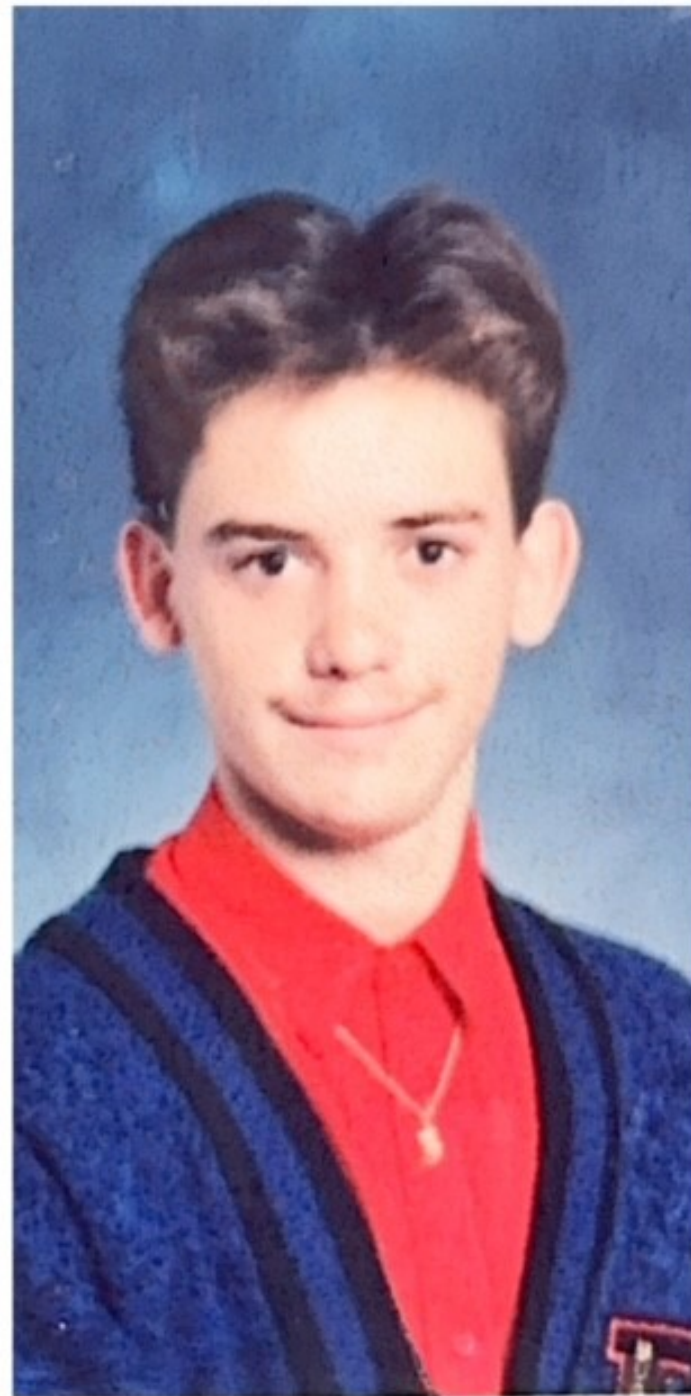

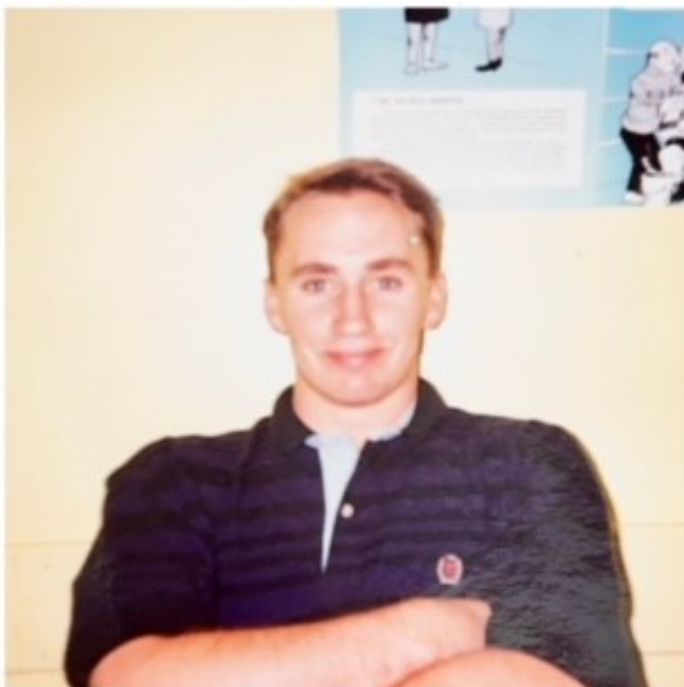

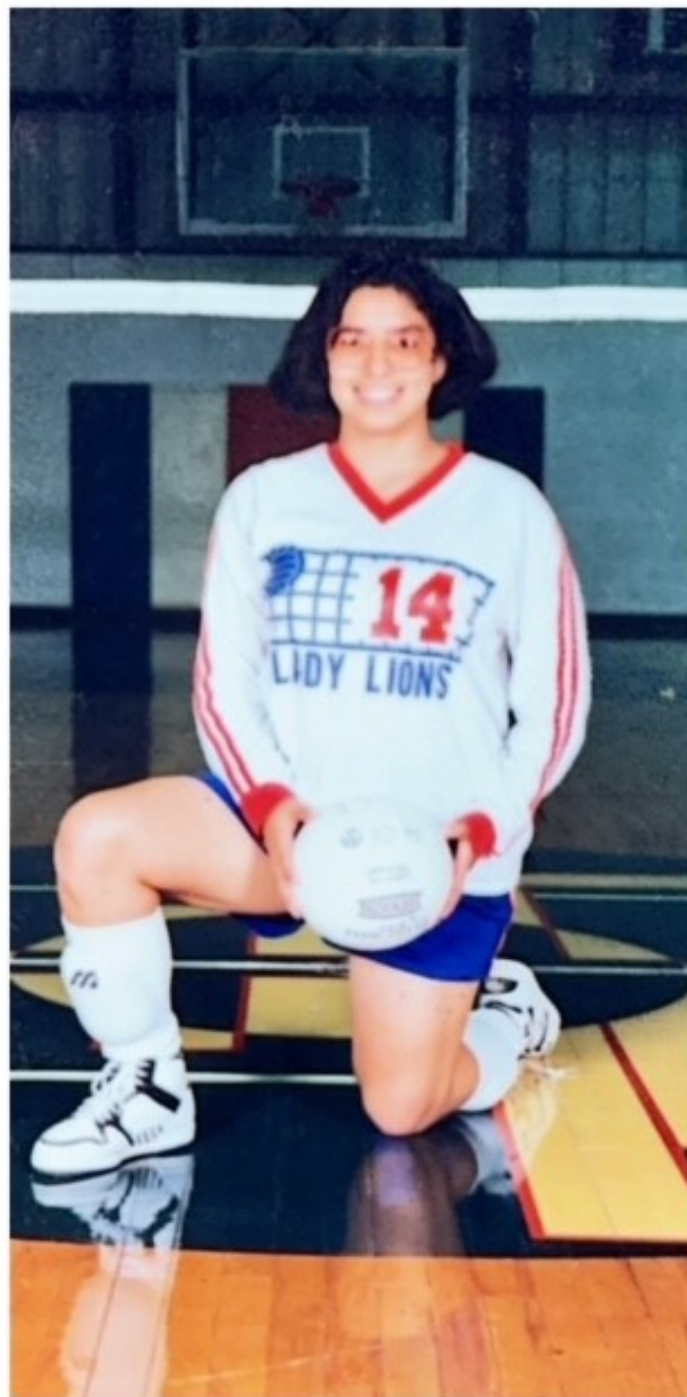

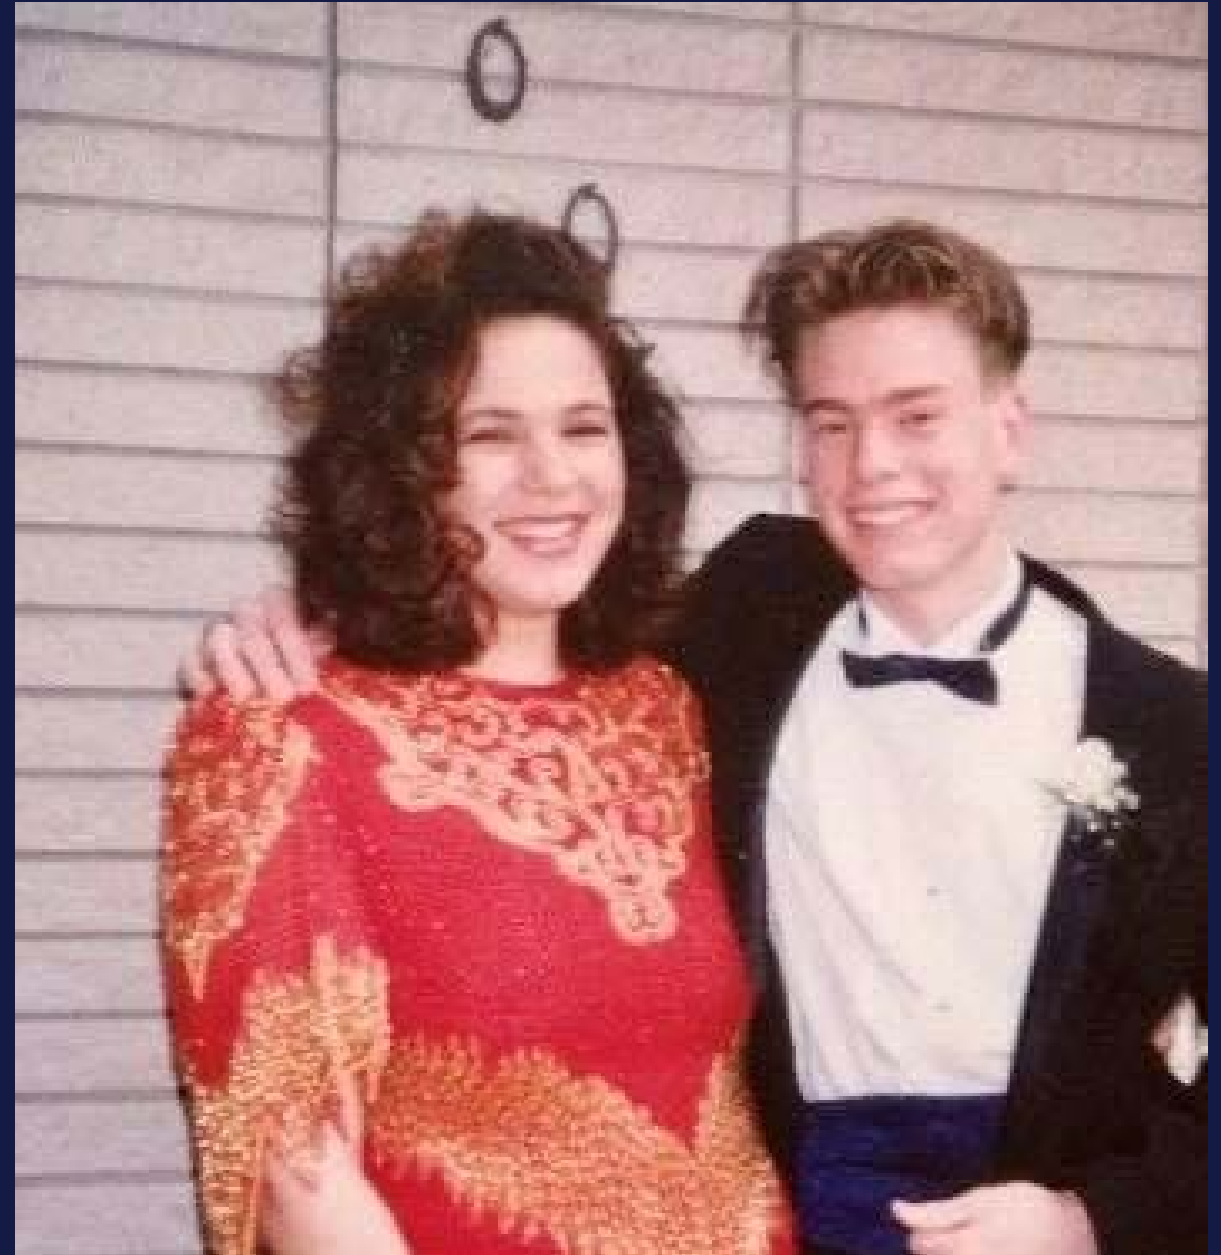

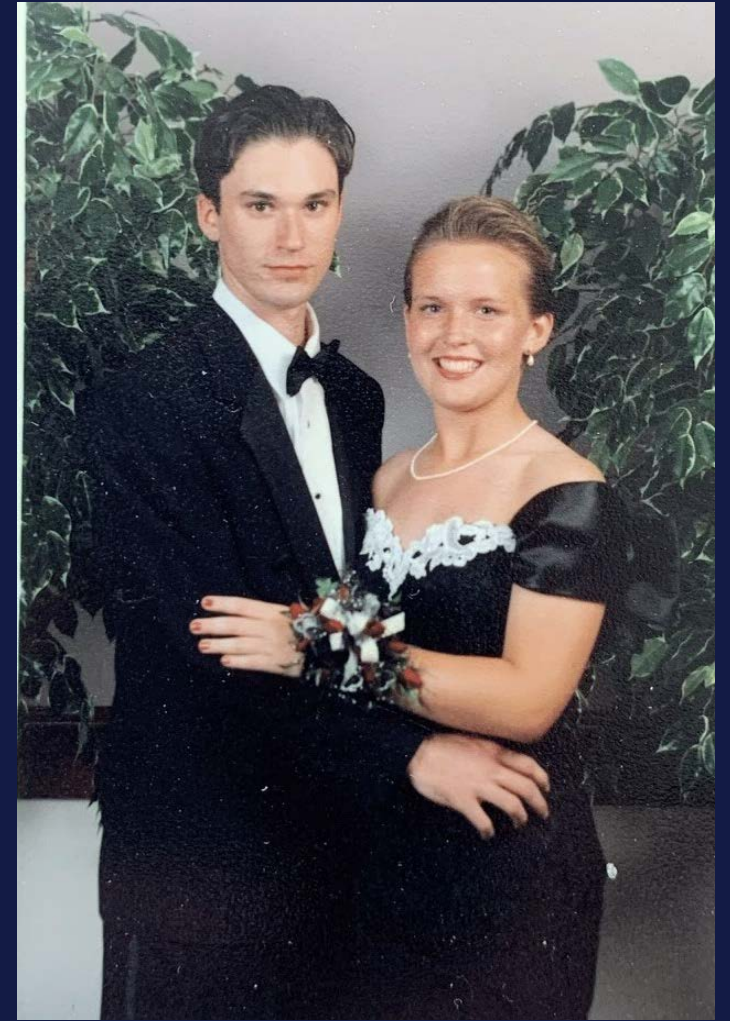

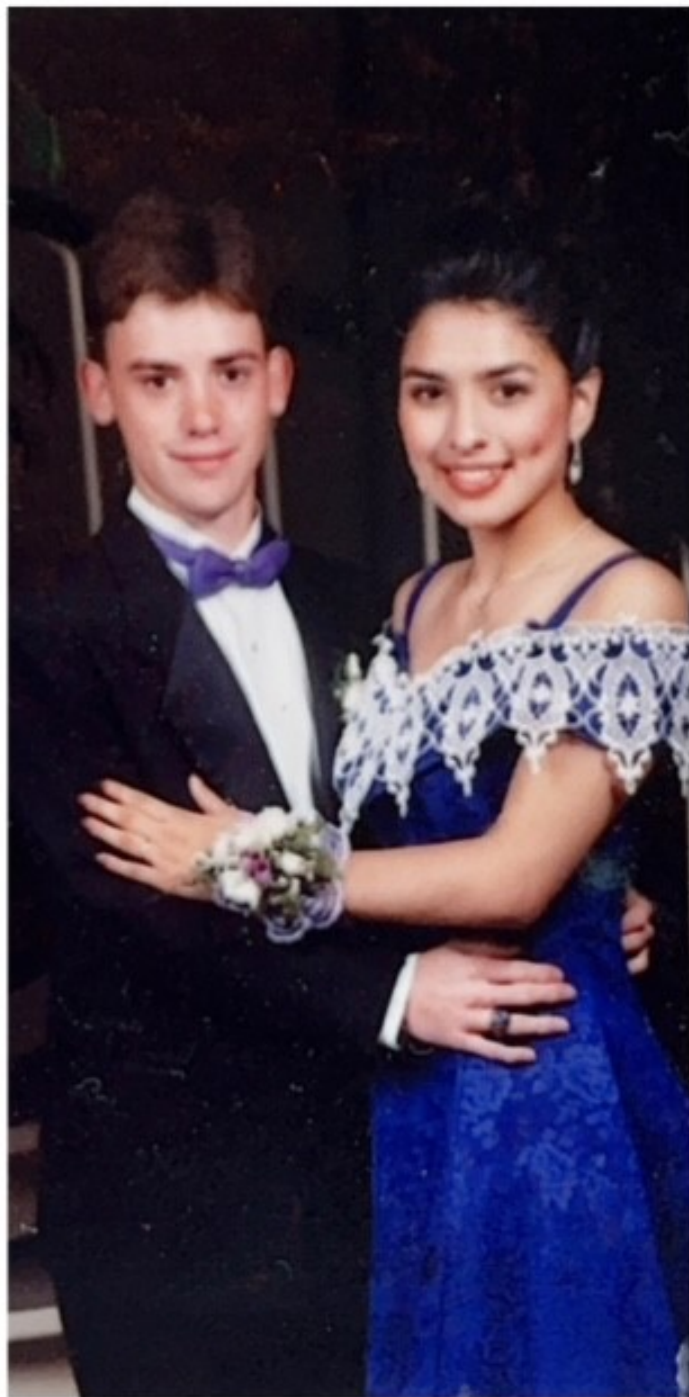

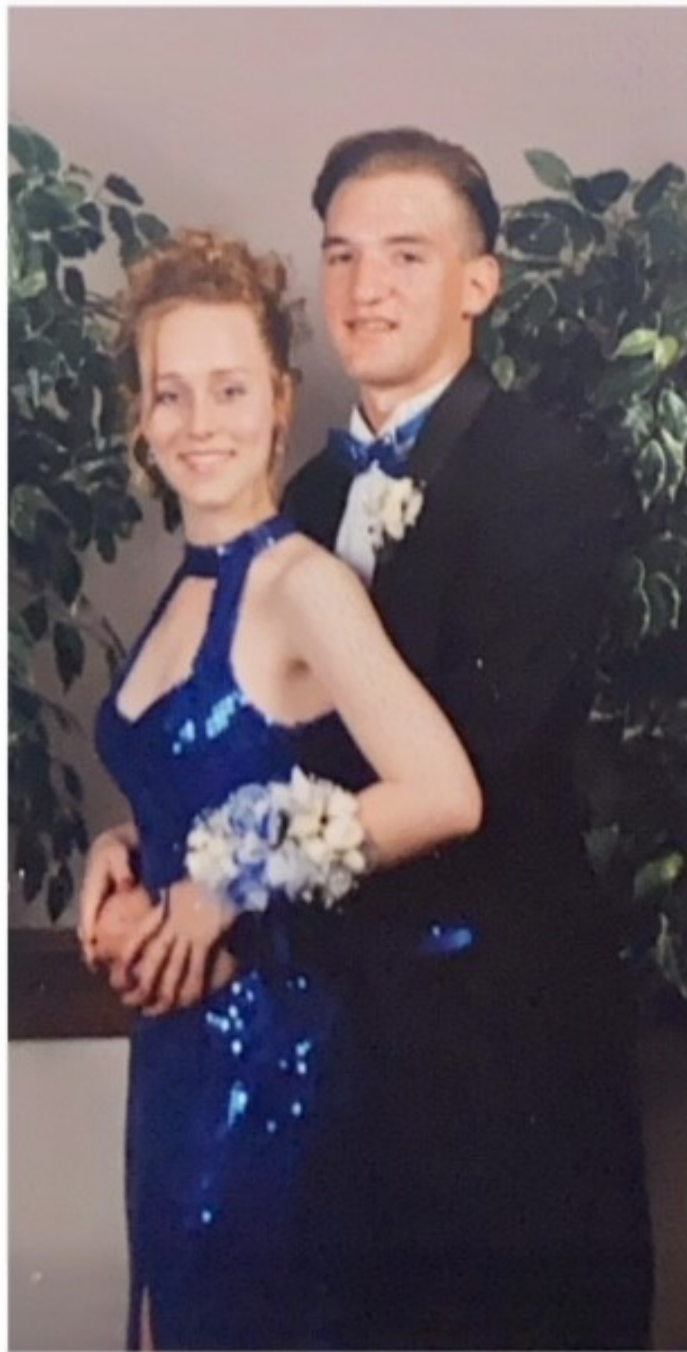

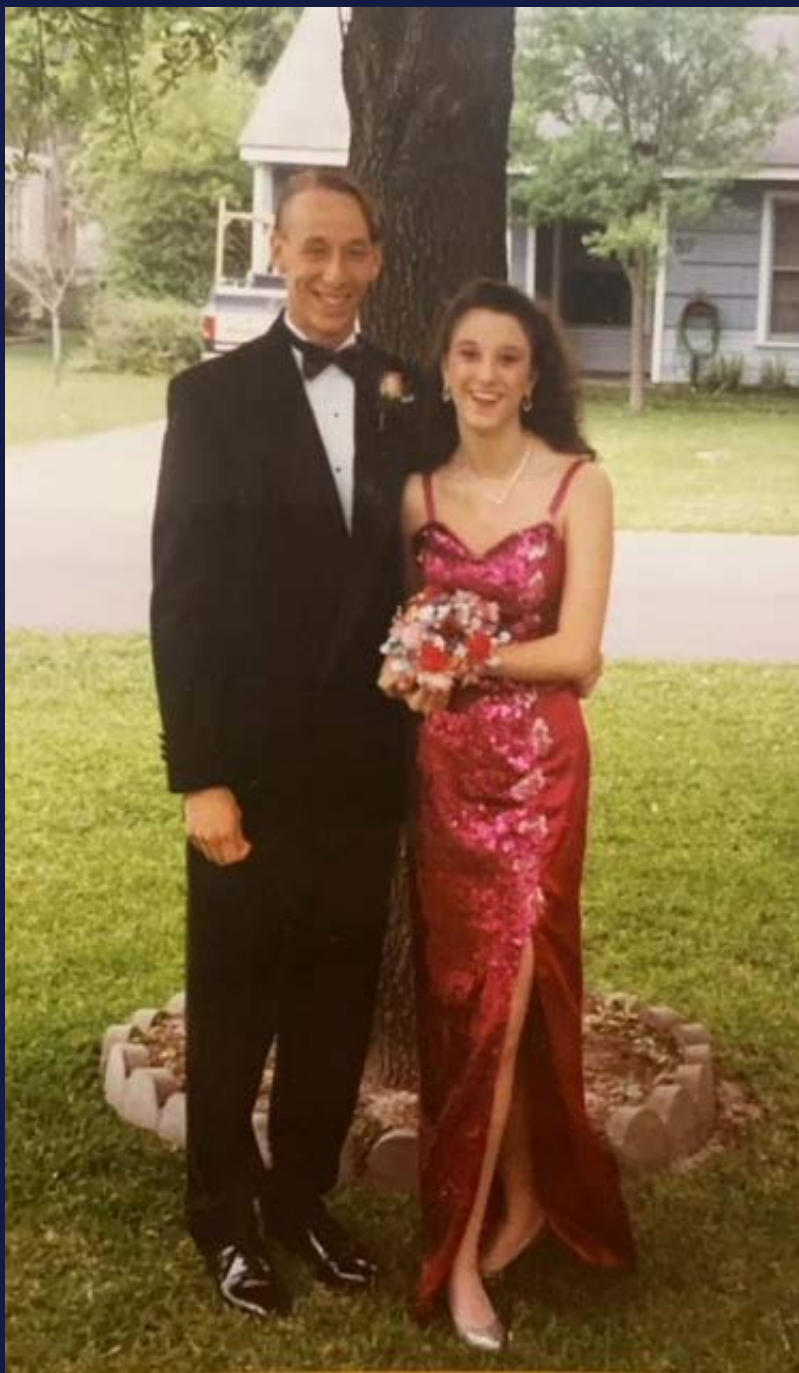

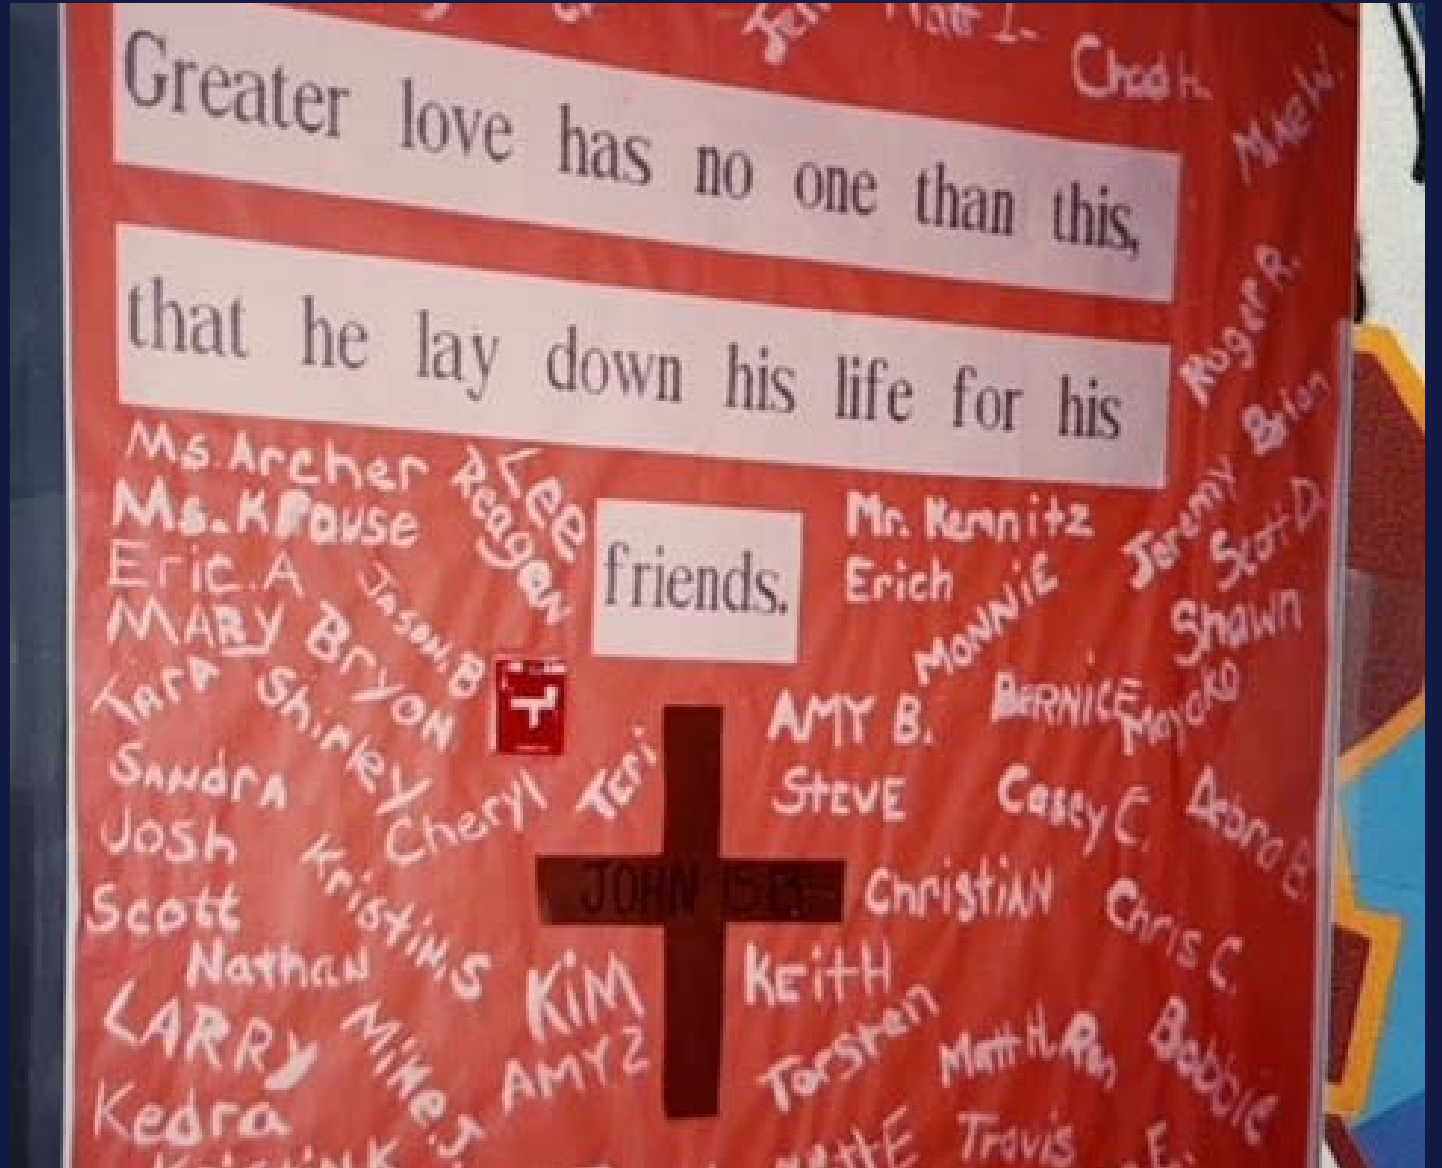

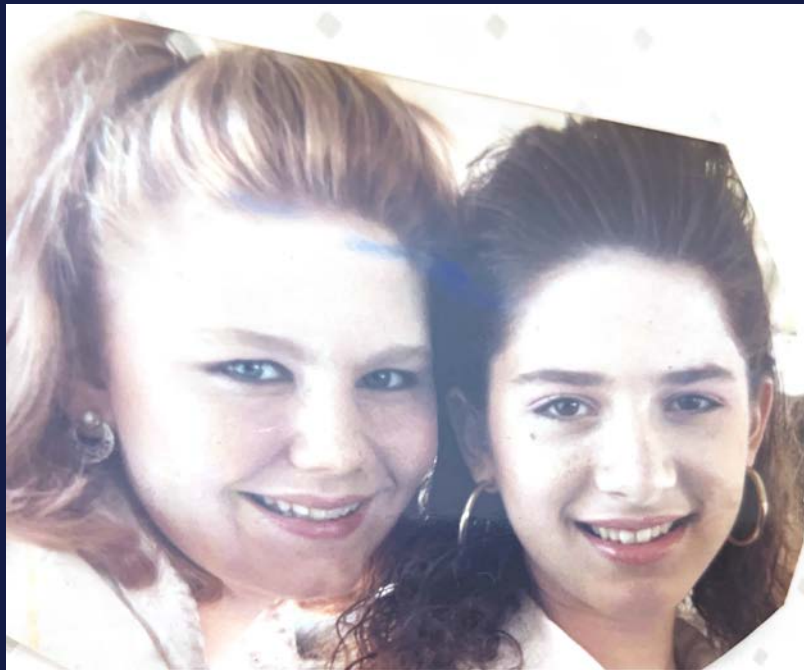

Friends Are . . .

The second year of high school, a lot of new friends are made and people grow closer to one another. Just ask the Sophomore class and you will see that they value their friends greatly

...
"Friends are people who listen to your stupid stories," Melissa Kiel.

"The bare necessities of life," Shawn Tang.

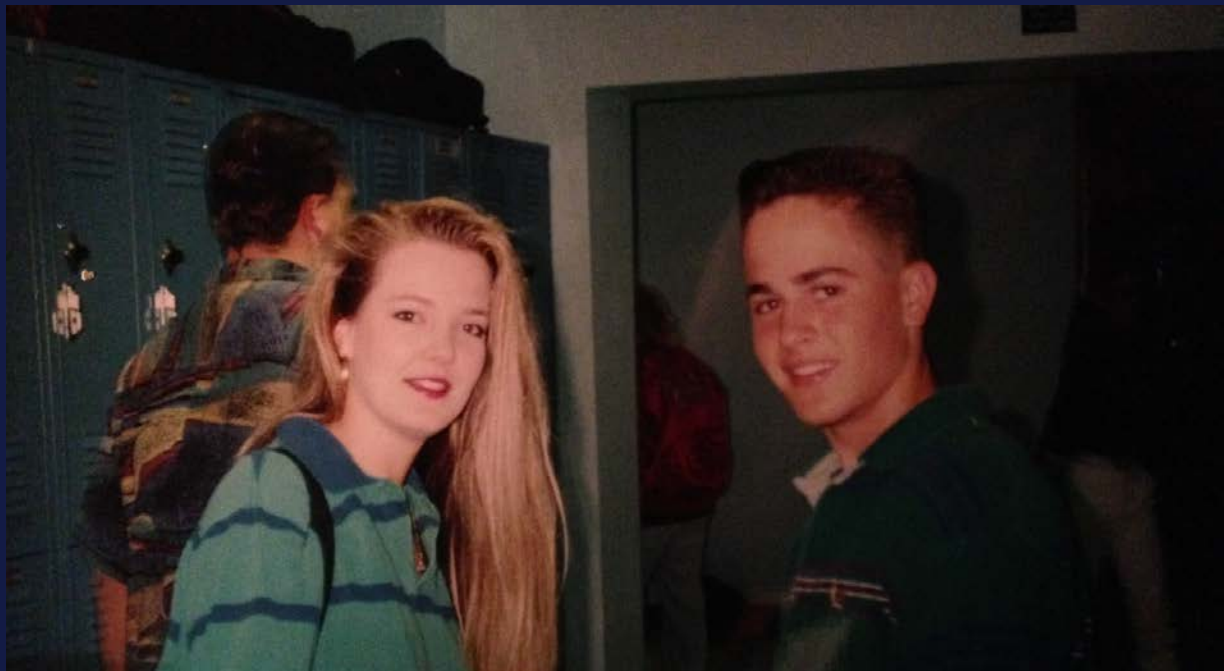

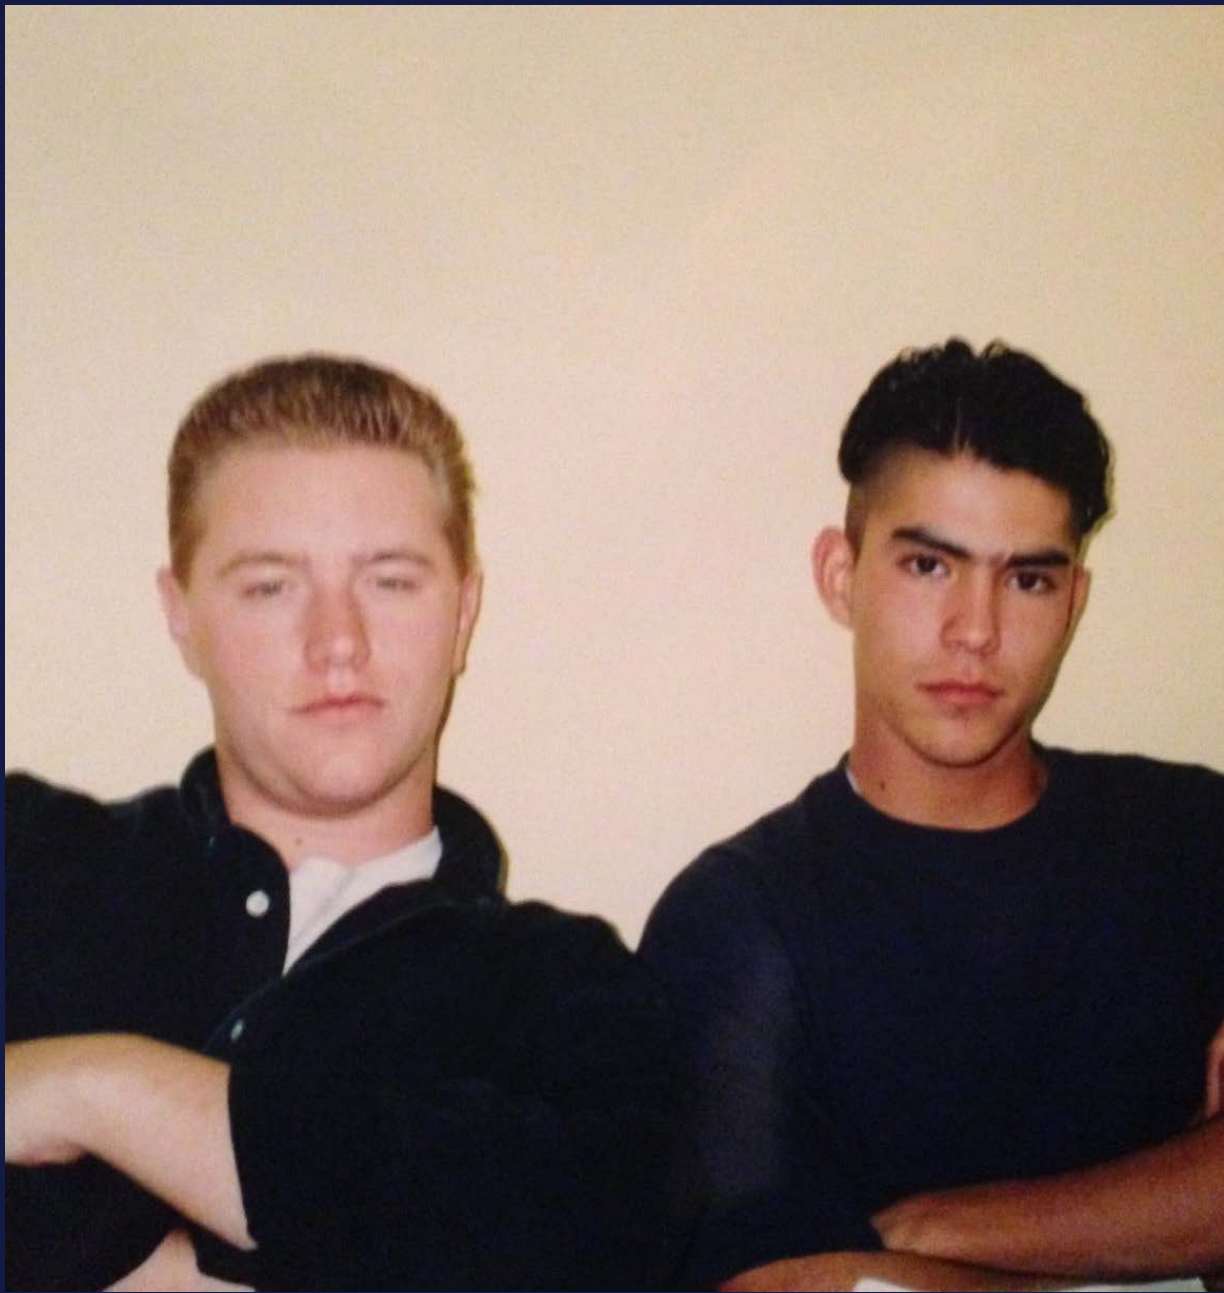

"People who stick to their word and commitments," Larry Wunderlich.

"People who put up with me," Jennifer Symmank.

"The people I hang around with," Casey Crocker.

Jennifer Jones sums it up by saying, "Friends are people that stick with you through thick and thin and will be with you when you need them most."

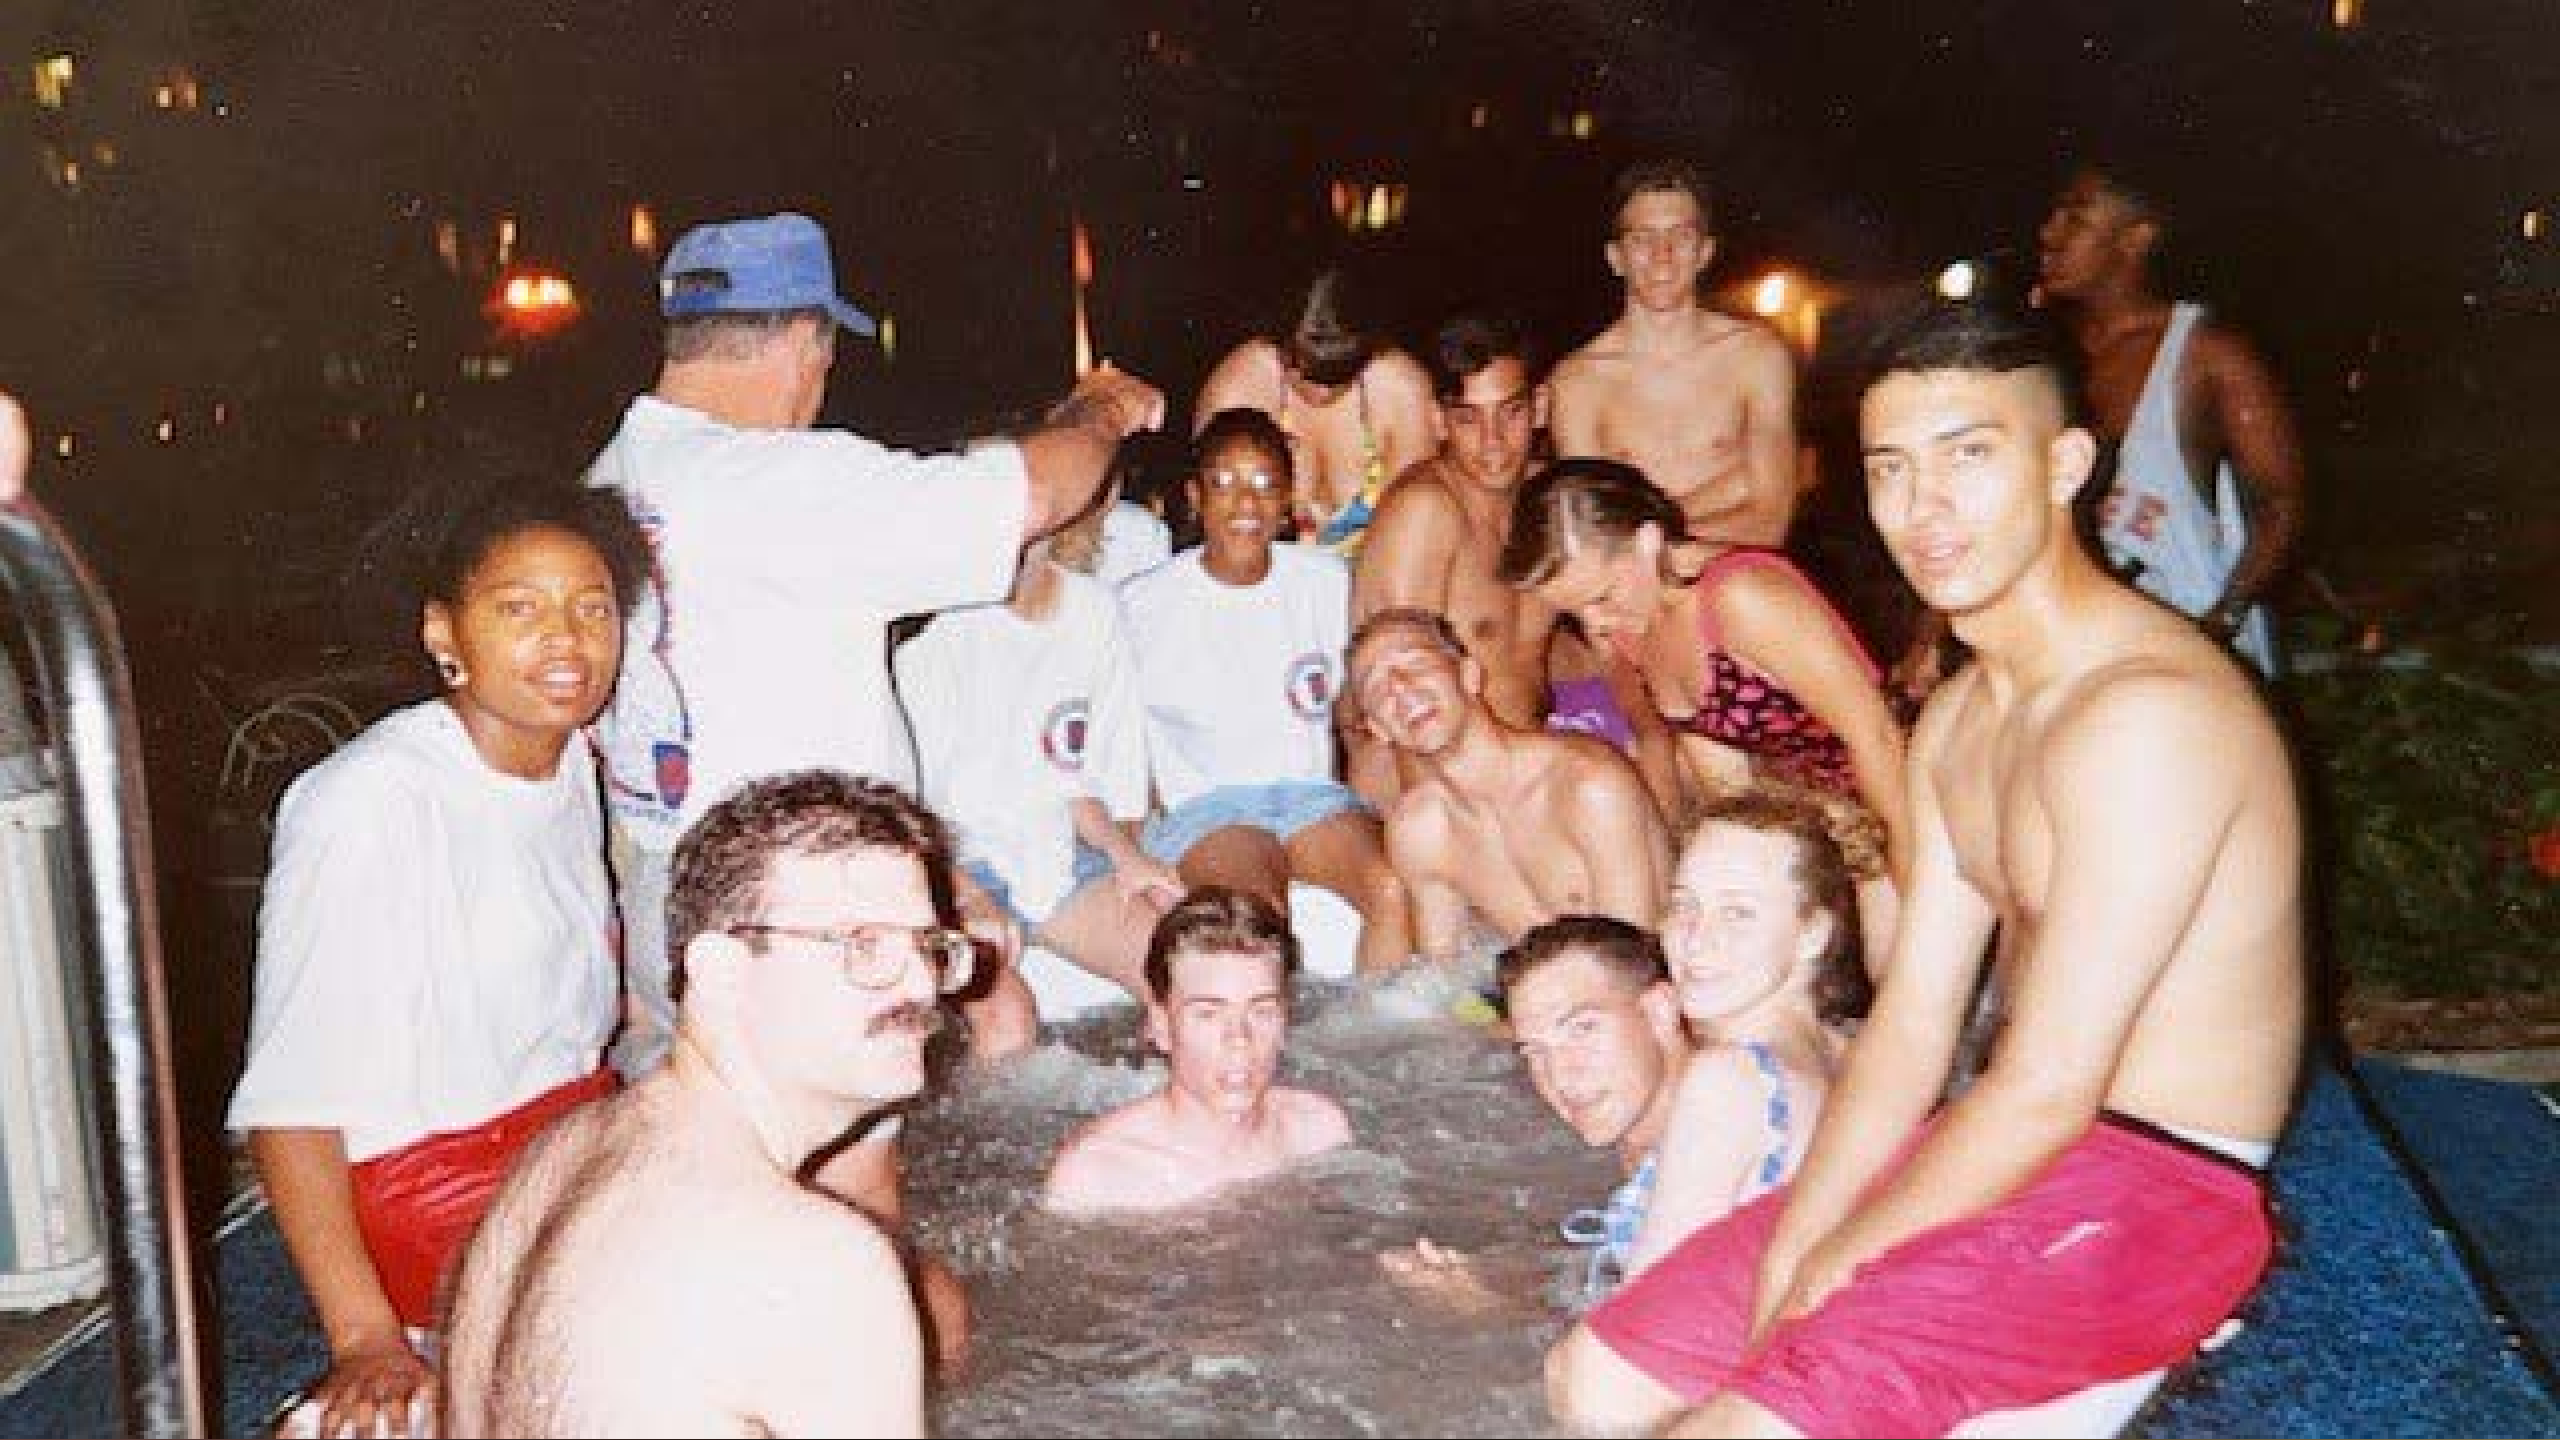

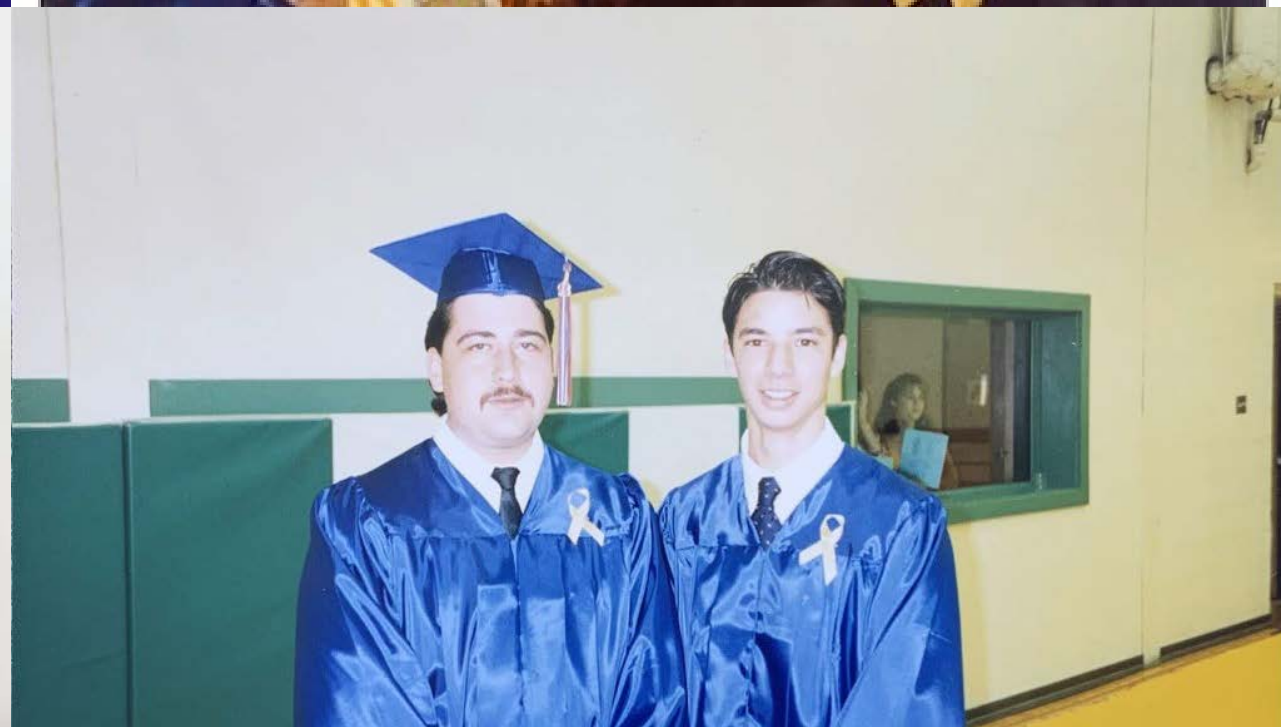

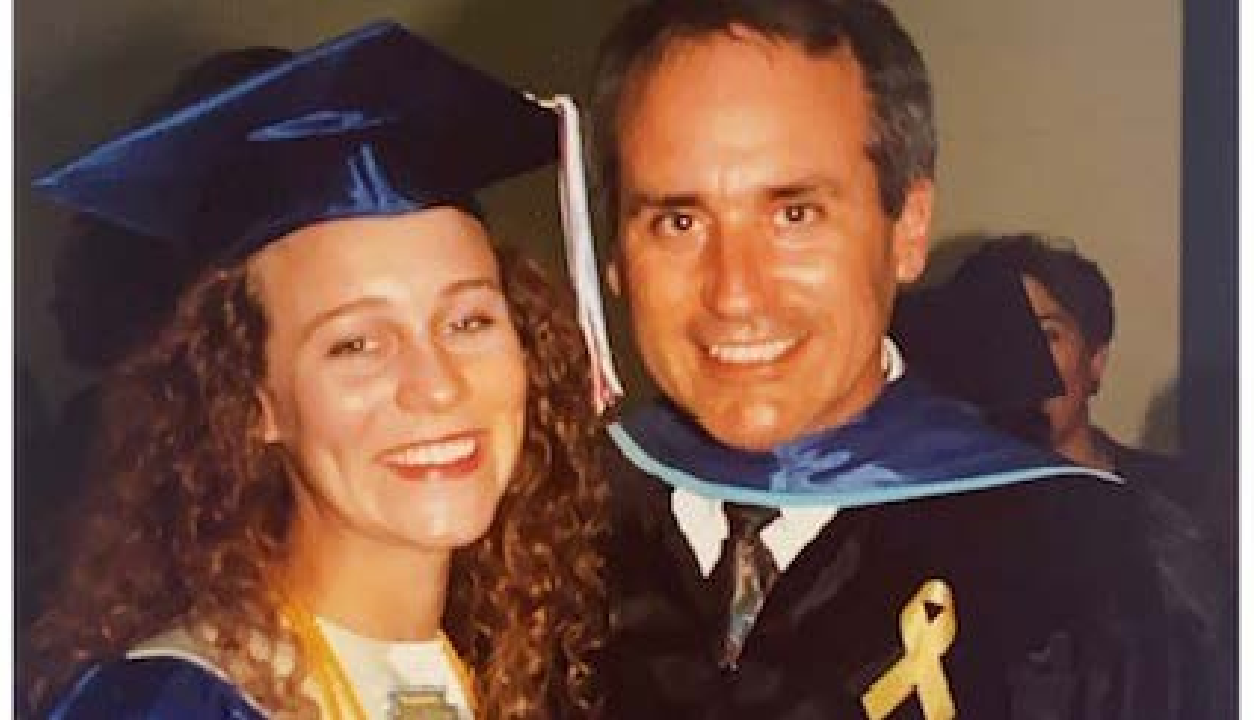

A true friend is never truly gone. Their spirit lives on in the memories of those who loved them.
